2008 Summer Camps include:

Toddler Camp, ages 3-4

June 30 – July 2; 9:00 – 12:00

Dino Camp

Dig through the rubble with CMBV to uncover the mysteries of the largest mammals to walk on Earth. Discovery learning and imagination will make this Prehistoric period will come alive.

Young Children, ages 4-6

June 9-13; 9:00 – 12:00

Pint-Size Picasso Art Camp, 9:00 – 12:00

Art Camp teaches unique methods of painting, drawing, sculpting and more! Your little artists will create unique masterpieces perfect for display in a gallery or just on your fridge!

July 7-11; 9:00 – 12:00

Space Camp

Fly through a week of asteroids, shooting stars, meteorites, rockets, and craters! Aspiring astronauts from Aggie Sat Lab will explore the ins and outs of space. It is sure to be out of this world.

July 21-25; 9:00 – 12:00

Snack Size-Me Cooking Camp

Back by popular demand! Campers will learn how to make their favorite cuisines and eat healthy all at the same time. With local chefs leading the camps, each participant will take home a number of simple recipes that can be duplicated in their home!

July 28 - August 1; 9:00 – 12:00

Fire Gator Camp

Stop, drop and roll! Get up close and personal with some of Bryan's finest fire fighters. Explore a smoke-filled room, examine fire gear, and experience the force of gushing water. Learn these techniques and more all week.

August 11-15; 9:00 – 12:00

Catch the Beat Music Camp

Let your imagination run wild with music, words, and movement. Learn the basics of science and sound in a rainforest symphony. Recreate sounds of nature when we make a rain stick, shaker and drum. Put these instruments to the test with a culminating performance on Friday. Be sure to catch your beat with Big Brazos World Village.

Older Children, ages 7-12*

June 9-13; 2:00 – 5:00

Gallon-Size Van Gogh Art Camp

Paris, here I come! Artists (or inspiring artists) in this camp will learn what it takes to make unique creations perfect for the galleries in New York, London or even Paris. Each day will highlight different art mediums with the week culminating in free expression art.

July 21-25; 2:00 – 5:00

Biggie Size-Me Cooking Camp

Ready for more complicated lessons in culinary arts? During this camp, participants will learn some simple, and not-so-simple, recipes perfect for the entire family.

August 4-8; 2:00 – 5:00 * (ages 8-12)

Police Camp

Your favorite, hometown heroes are taking you behind-the-scenes. Dust for fingerprints, examine a crime scene, and practice SWAT techniques! Experience an action-packed week in a way you have never seen before.

August 11-15; 2:00 – 5:00

Get Rhythm Music Camp

Unleash your creative imagination with movement and dance as we share the science of rhythm. Create musical instruments from around the world and learn professional dance techniques with Big Brazos World Village. Then express your new found talent with an inspiring "Drum Circle" performance.
